The All-Star teams are named tonight at 7 PM, and if there's any justice ... Travis Hafner and Grady Sizemore will both make the squad. Here's who I'd take. 32 man teams, every team must be represented. From the observations made watching the Tribe, the MLB package, following three fantasy baseball teams, and spending the last hour perusing through stats ... here's who I'd take.

Hafner and Sizemore should both be All-Stars. I don't care about Guillen's claim that he already has Thome and Big Papi. He can't keep Hafner off this team. If Wedge is at the game, and Travis isn't ... that would just be wrong on so many levels.

Here's who I'd take. 32 man teams, every team must be represented. From the observations made watching the Tribe, the MLB package, following three fantasy baseball teams, and spending the last hour perusing through stats.
