The Indians lose another one, dropping the series with the Rays and extending their home losing streak to … two. In today's B-List, Buff laments Justin Masterson's decision to avoid the strike zone, wonders if relief pitching statistics are measured properly, nearly resists the urge to gloat about Chad Durbin having a role, and wonders if the Tribe's baserunners need refills on their ADD medications. He almost gives credit to James Shields, but resists heroically at the very last minute. Hu zzah!
