The Indians jumped all over DJ Junky Jeff Francis, and, staked to a 5-0 lead, Josh Tomlin once again produced a Quality Start for his 4th win on the season. This gives the Tribe two unbeaten pitchers with at least 4 wins since Oog Groont and Gronk Rabinowicz in the now-defunct Ice Age League. In today's B-List, Buff makes a couple of unsettling comparisons, manages to complain about clutch hitting, and wonders if Shin-Soo Choo should stop wearing that target patch.
