The Indians used two stellar performances by starters and one by Johnny Wholestaff to take 3 of 4 games this weekend, including two from the Reds to clinch the Battle of Ohio at 5 games to 1. As the team rolls toward the All-Star break, Buff looks at which starter was most impressive, briefly notes which was leat impressive, expresses complete flabbergastization at the heroes of Monday night's game, praises the bullpen, and makes fun of Texas manager Ron Washington.

Huzzah!

FINAL

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

R

H

E

Indians (43-37)

0

1

3

0

4

0

0

0

0

8

12

0

Reds (42-41)

0

0

0

1

0

0

0

0

1

2

5

0

W: Masterson (6-6) L: Arroyo (7-7)

FINAL

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

R

H

E

Indians (44-37)

0

0

3

0

0

0

0

0

0

3

8

0

Reds (42-42)

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

1

0

1

9

1

W: Herrmann (1-0) L: H. Bailey (3-3) S: Pestano (1)

FINAL

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

R

H

E

Indians (44-38)

0

2

0

0

0

2

1

0

0

5

7

1

Reds (43-42)

0

3

0

3

1

0

0

0

X

7

11

0

W: Leake (8-4) L: Talbot (2-5) S: F. Cordero (17)

FINAL

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

R

H

E

Famine (50-33)

0

0

0

0

0

0

2

1

0

3

4

0

Indians (45-38)

0

0

0

0

0

0

4

2

X

6

6

1

W: Tomlin (10-4) L: Burnett (8-7) S: C. Perez (20)

Just the way we planned it!

1) Vaulted ceiling [illegible]