In the same vein of the GCL and Kinston recaps posted a few weeks back, Tony decided to go to Lake County late last week to get the 411 on a lot of the walking wounded and also spend a little time talking to some of the guys he had not had a chance to speak to yet this season. And this special version of Minor Happenings is loaded with great tidbits from that trip. It's really been an unbelievable season of coverage of this organization from Tony, and it isn't over yet. Also, don't forget to check out Tony's radio show tomorrow night! Details inside.

"Minor Happenings" covers the important developments and news in the Indians farm system. While most of the information in this report is from my own research and through interviews I have conducted with organizational personnel, some information in this report is collected and summarized from the various news outlets that cover each team.

In the same vein of the GCL and Kinston recaps posted a few weeks back, I decided to go to Lake County late last week to get the 411 on a lot of the walking wounded and also spend a little time talking to some of the guys I have not had a chance to speak to yet this season. Also, there should still be a regular version of Happenings
that posts tomorrow late afternoon or on Friday.

And don't forget to check out episode number three of my radio show
on Thursday night at 9:30 PM EST.

Gaub Strikes Out The Competition

It has been a long road back for left-handed reliever John Gaub. There was a time where at the University of Minnesota he would consistently throw 96 MPH, but shoulder surgery after his sophomore season sort of derailed his

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]