The few Cleveland fans not watching the NBA team turn into the Newtaliers were treated to the Brett Cecil Show, as the Toronto hurler carried a perfect game into the 7th inning. Although Cecil lost the perfect game, no-hitter, and shutout to a two-walks-and-a-single Planck Rally, it was plenty for the Jays to take the opener, as Mitch Talbot gave up three bombs. Buff considers Talbot's outing, Peralta's hit, and everything else of interest, which is to say, nothing. Well, Tony Sipp. Whatever.

FINAL

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

R

H

E

Brett Cecils (14-13)

0

2

1

1

0

0

0

0

1

5

8

0

Indians (10-15)

0

0

0

0

0

0

1

0

0

1

2

0

W: Cecil (2-1) L: Talbot (3-2)

[redacted]