Well well well well welly well. The Indians lost again to the Mets, and stop me if you've heard this before, but it was largely because our defense was not good and our pitcher gave up a bunch of extra-base hits. Okay, you stopped me. Because you've heard it before. Today's column lacks a bit of the ranting and raving of yesterday's, because the bile has not had time to recharge, but that doesn't mean the Indians played any better. They didn't.

FINAL	1	2	3
Mets (37-28)	0	0	5
Indians (23-37)	0	0	0

W: Niese (4-2) L: Talbot (7-5)

[redacted]