The Ohio State Buckeyes men's basketball team will make their first ever trip to Durham, North Carolina on November 28 to play Duke as part of the Big Ten/ACC Challenge.

The two teams will meet just 12 months after Ohio State destroyed the Blue Devils by 22 points in Columbus . Led by strong outings from Jared Sullinger (21 points), William Buford (20 points), Deshaun Thomas (18 points) and Aaron Craft (17 points), the Buckeyes dismantled No. 3 Duke in front of a sold-out Value City Arena.

The Buckeyes will be replacing Sullinger and Buford this season, but talented recruiting classes in the past have landed the Buckeyes a No. 8 ranking in ESPN's early poll . The Blue Devils will be replacing Austin Rivers and Miles Plumlee but return a solid core that includes Ryan Kelly, Seth Curry and Quinn Cook.

Game time and networks are TBD.
