Stop me if you've heard this one before: despite excellent performances from the starters (counting Masterson as such), the woeful Indians' offense contributed next to nothing and the Indians lost more games than they won. Ha ha! You tried to stop me, didn't you? Well, you can't. It's a rhetorical device, and I'm not actually listening to you. I am still writing about Indians, though, which means I will soon run out of rhetorical devices, because I will be insane or dead. Huzzah!

FINAL	1	2	3
Twins (83-58)	0	0	0
Indians (58-83)	0	1	0

W: Carmona (12-14) L: Pavano (16-11)

FINAL	1	2	3
Twins (84-58)	0	0	0
Indians (58-84)	0	0	0

W: Guerrier (4-7) L: Germano (0-2) S: Capps (12)

FINAL	1	2	3
Twins (85-58)	5	0	0
Indians (58-85)	0	2	0

W: Slowey (12-6) L: Talbot (9-12)

[redacted]