On one miracle heave launched deep into a chilly late-October night, Ohio State rejuvenated what once Braxton Miller logged only the first of hopefully a bunch of signature moments in Ohio State's 33-29 win over bedeviled Wisconsin Saturday night. The extraordinarily composed freshman capped off an amazing game with an amazing throw- a 40-yard, across-the-body prayer that found Devin Smith in the end zone with twenty seconds left. The play topped off a dizzying last five minutes in which Ohio State seemingly locked up an upset win, seemingly blew it all Nebraska-style and finally took it back again, this time for keeps. looked like a lost season - and gave birth to a legend.

Improbably, the victory puts the Buckeyes back into contention for a division title and a spot in the Big Ten Championship Game. At 2-2 in the conference and 5-3 overall, Ohio State will take the Leaders Division if it wins out and Penn State loses twice. Not bad for a team Yours Truly left for dead on the floor of Memorial Stadium in Lincoln a few weeks ago.

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]